

Please do not overturn do not call list...I have the right to say this since I have my own business...I have never solicited customers over the phone unless they gave me written permission to do so...my business has thrived and I believe it is because I respect the privacy and personal time of others...I appreciate the same in return!